The procedure in this case has been throughout irregular. The death of Subraya Bhatta was not reported to Govt. His adopted son Narasimhiah drew the stipend without a stipend order therefor from 1881 to 1901 when he died. Perhaps the records of 1881 will throw light in the matter.

2. The Agrahar was held by Subbarayabhatta, the ancestor of of Narasimhappa referred to above, and 5 others. In lieu of 3 warg numbers held by them a cash Inam amounting to Rs 45-6-0 was settled in 1877. The amount was distributed among the Inamdars in proportion to the interest they had in the Warg, and the 1st Inamdar as per entry in the Register has been in receipt of Rs 11-5-6. There is no title-deed for this number and none of the Inamdars have obtained Stipendiary order.

3. In 1881 Narasimhappa's name was entered in the Register. He died of plague at Shimoga on 21st January 1903 leaving a widow by name Saradamma and a minor daughter Gundi aged about 2 years. The amount of cash Inam remains un from 1901-902. I ee a Stipendiary order may be issued in the name of Sarvamma wife of the late Inamdar and Sanction accorded to the payment of the arrears.

Col: 19 Contd:

Before recommending the confirmation of the shares nos 2 & 4 noted in 15 with the particulars of the alienation recorded in col: 18, I deem it necessary to make the following remarks for the consideration of the Inam Commissioner.

The boy no: 2 is said to be adopted by one Seshagiri in 1857 or thereabouts when he was but a child and that his 'Upanayana' or the investiture of the sacred thread was also to have been made by his legal father after the death of his adoptive parents.

The validity and genuineness of the adoption is disputed by one Krishna Jois who is a grandson of the great grand uncle of the alleged adoptive father of the boy and husband of the last holder Jungamma, who died in 1861 or thereabouts. The case I consider is a pending lapse having taken place within the last 12 years prescribed in the case of alienation and the claimant is a "Sapinda" & reversioner -

The father of the lad mentioned in col. 15 states that the deceased Jungamma, the last holder was his sister and that on failure of issue to her, his second son, the boy in question, was taken into the family adopted by her and her late husband, as their child the ceremony of adoption or "Datta Homa having taken place - He also tells me that the adoption was was recognised by the Revenue authorities and the Warg containing the Inam of the deceased widow in the Mr. other magani was registered in the boy's name. When there is such a recognition on the part of the government officers I do not think it necessary to re open the case so far as the government right of reversion is concerned. This Inam may be registered in the name of the party in col. 14. The Chitta of Hara - - ghig mentioned that order no 72 of 1859 now issued by the Superintendent for the registration of the Warg and the Inam holding in the his late adoptive mother in his name.

If the reversioner above mentioned Krishna Jois still wishes to dispute the alienation and the adoption of the boy, and assert his right of reversion, he should bring a civil suit for which I have allowed him one months time.

The Share in question situate in Warg no: 28 may be registered in the name of the boy in col. 15 and confirmed on ½ Q.R. or Rs 13-0-0 including the jody.
